Tiger Logistics Launches FreightJar 2.0: Revolutionizing Imports, Air Cargo, and LCL Market for Global Forwarding Companies

29th May 2024, New Delhi – Tiger Logistics (India) Limited, a BSE-listed international logistics company with over 24+ years of experience, announced the launch of FreightJar 2.0. This major upgrade to its proprietary freight booking and management platform will enable businesses of all sizes to handle their import shipments, including FCL (Full Container Load), LCL (Less than Container Load), and Air Freight, with enhanced ease and efficiency. This is in addition to its existing capabilities for FCL exports.

Launched in April last year, FreightJar has successfully onboarded over 500 exporters across various industries, including automotive, textiles, PTAs, consumer durables, and food and food produce. The latest version, FreightJar 2.0, is now fully integrated with core technology and ready for immediate use by exporters and importers in India. It is also accessible to over 5,000 forwarders and agents globally, primarily in the US, Asia-Pacific, Europe, Latin America, and Middle East markets.

Commenting on the achievement, Mr. Harpreet Singh Malhotra, MD of Tiger Logistics (India) Limited said, "FreightJar's impressive performance in its first year demonstrates its potential to empower businesses, With the launch of FreightJar 2.0, expanding into LCL and Air Freight segments, we believe it will revolutionize the industry. This advancement will drive SMEs and MSMEs deeper into the global trade market and create stronger partnerships with global agents."

"In the world of international trade, FreightJar 2.0 stands as a beacon, empowering businesses of all sizes to compete effectively, Regardless of shipment volume or mode of transport, it enables them to navigate complexities with confidence, echoing the principles of sustainable growth that underpin our approach" he added"

About FreightJar 2.0:

Empowering Small and Medium Enterprises

FreightJar 2.0 is a crucial link, enabling smaller businesses to access competitive freight rates for FCL & LCL shipments and Air Cargo, which are typically only available to larger corporations.

Modern Interface, Improved Performance

FreightJar 2.0 boasts a modern, user-friendly design with an intuitive, mobile-responsive user interface (UI) and user experience (UX). This streamlined approach simplifies logistics processes, enabling businesses to:

- Effortlessly request and compare quotes for FCL, LCL, and air freight shipments, securing the best rates.
- Seamlessly book shipments through an optimized process.
- Track cargo movement in real-time for full visibility.
- Automate documentation management, reducing manual tasks and errors.
- Access multilingual options for global use.

Digital Innovation Meets Industry Expertise

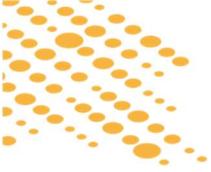

Tiger Logistics' deep industry knowledge and strong global presence enhance FreightJar's growth. This combination ensures smooth cargo movement and reduces on-ground challenges.

Abhishek Jain, Head of Product at FreightJar, said, "Our commitment to innovation and customer needs remains steadfast. With ongoing investments in research, strategic partnerships, and customer insights, FreightJar 2.0 is leading the way in international logistics."

He further added, "Our digital solutions are built on real-world expertise, ensuring a seamless logistics process for our customers."

Revolutionizing Global Logistics Management

FreightJar 2.0 advances the management of FCL, LCL, and air freight shipments for businesses of all sizes. With its intuitive interface and advanced features, it is transforming how businesses engage in international trade.
